Ollantay to Share Andean Folkloric Music at Braddock Nights

Twanging Charangos (small guitar), haunting Kenas (large pan pipes) and the steady thump of the traditional Bolivian Bombo (drum) mark the arrival of Ollantay, a Bolivian Andean band named for the Chief of the Imperial Army of the Incan Empire. The group, which interprets South American folkloric and popular music, will perform at Lake Accotink Park on Friday, July 28, 2006; at 7:30 p.m. Come experience Ollantay's magical, high-mountain sound at Braddock Nights.

Lake Accotink Park is located at 7500 Lake Accotink Park Road, Springfield.

Concerts are free and take place outdoors. Bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 324-SHOW after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Other Braddock Nights performances can be seen throughout the summer at Ossian Hall Park in Annandale and Royal Lake Park in the Kings Park West area.

Braddock Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Braddock District Supervisor, Friends of Braddock Nights, the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
